Classic Playhouse

Classic Playhouse

If outside your house you have nature, while inside your house you have a playhouse, you would probably say that you have an "indoor playhouse". So, what would you say if your indoor playhouse brought the wonders of nature inside your house? Ummm, who cares, really, as long as the kids are having a ball.

The classic part of our Classic Playhouse is the spacious gable roof design. The play parts of our Classic Playhouse are the three wide-shelved windows, full wall chalkboard, cottage door, flowers, birds and bugs. The only part missing is your kids who will quickly turn this classic into something truly magic.
